MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Security
VIA: Deputy Director of Security
STAT FROM: [redacted]
Deputy Director of Security (P&M)
SUBJECT: Agenda, Third Quarterly Review

STAT I suggest we use [redacted] memorandum as a strawman in pulling together an agenda that is meaningful and also interesting to the DDA. These are my thoughts on "ad hoc" items.

* The last quarterly had a heavy PTAS flavor because of the Beirut tragedy and the TSD "find." I would swing back to personnel security, in the major thrust.

* On PARC, I would go beyond the "numbers game" and focus on the interesting aspects of our professional ~~re~~ recruitment, such as: (a) the recent 5 year projection on age groups (b) the status of female professionals, and (c) the number of black officers. In effect we have a pretty good overall track record and a picture of our last class reflects the mix that is involved. I have attached EEO statistics.

STAT * We took the initiative in proposing a "post mortem" review of problem cases, and there should be a status report and/or an [redacted] type presentation on some recent significant cases, here and abroad. In effect, get away from RIP statistics, and learn to live with "cohabitation."

* The alien marriage policy is a very worthy topic, which should be handled by the Director of Security or the Chief, Polygraph Division. The primary impact is on our polygraph program and a fresh face should address the practical concerns which go beyond "clearance."

* There are strong residual feelings on how we proceed with the polygraph training [redacted] and this should be addressed squarely so that the DDA understands and supports our approach to this issue. In fact a little CI briefing on the lessons of [redacted] might set the tone.

* As the bottom line "personal integrity" is a current theme from the Executive Director and the DDA, whereas several of the PTAS topics have little sex appeal.
